

Jesus Brings a Widow's Son Back to Life Luke 7:11-17

Here's what happens...

Jesus sees a funeral procession for a boy. The boy's mother is a widow, and this boy is her only son. Filled with compassion, Jesus touches the coffin and tells the boy to get up. The boy sits up, alive again!

Bible Point:

Jesus is compassionate,
so we're compassionate.

"A friend is always loyal, and a brother is born to help in time of need" (Proverbs 17:17).

Through the Week

Show compassion for people you don't even know this week!

- Read or watch the news as a family. (You may wish to pre-screen the news to find stories you don't mind your child hearing about.)
- Show compassion by praying together for the people impacted by the tragedies or issues presented in the news.
- Talk about how you feel knowing that people have to go through those things.

SPC Kids
Ministry

Talk About This...

- Tell about someone you know who's going through a hard time right now.
How could you show compassion?